DETAILED ACTION

This communication is in response to amendment filed 9/9/09.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fails to teach or render obvious the limitation of independent claims. The Applicant has claims a predatory lending machine.

Independent claim 29 discloses a method for loan processing including review of predatory lending rules and risk scoring.

The following prior art references have been deemed most relevant to the allowed claim(s):

The closest prior art Broadbent et al. (US Pat. 6,985,886) teaches method and apparatus for mortgage loan management, specifically using Federal, State, local and professional regulations to generate tasks for the loan process.

The closest prior art Kottmeier (US Pat. 7,406,442) teaches a method and system for credit card application process and analyzing credit information to determine a level of risk or risk score of a cardholder.

Claims 29-36 & 38-40 are allowed because Broadbent and Kottmeier references as discussed above as the Closest Prior art of record fails to teach or render obvious a method of calculation and displaying a total numeric risk score for each loan and assigning a risk category to a loan based upon the numeric risk score based on the predatory lending rules.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
